Ryan Anningson, who lives in the 2008 affordable housing development Tiger Lofts apartments, said a new owner to the building wants residents moved out by Oct. 31, 2023 and to sign a N11 form to allow for renovations and new tenants.

TENANTS CLAIM THEY'VE BEEN BITTEN BY OWNER'S GREED

NEW OWNER WANTS RESIDENTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING TO LEAVE AND SIGN N11 FORM

A mass "renoviction" has residents at a downtown Galt affordable apartment complex fearing they will be out on the streets.

In a text message recently sent to Tiger Lofts apartment residents by the superintendent, and seen by the Times, the tenants were told there was a new owner of the former Tiger Brand Knitting Ltd. building at 35 Water St. S., and all of them had to be moved out by Oct. 31, 2023, so the building could undergo renovations. Each tenant would receive a $10,000 compensation package.

The superintendent further informed tenants they would have to sign a N11 form — which states the landlord and tenant both want to end the lease — within a week.

This news blindsided some of the tenants, as the 54-unit building was developed in 2008 by
