A Mississippi Mills man is dead, and a Carleton Place man is charged with first-degree murder.

Around 4 a.m. on July 15, Lanark County Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) officers were dispatched to the 7 West Motel in Carleton Place, situated on Highway 7. At the location, they discovered Patrick Robert Lynch, 57, suffering from serious injuries. Lynch was taken to the Carleton Place & District Memorial Hospital, and later died of his injuries.

In connection to the incident, nine hours later, around 1 p.m., members of the OPP Tactics and Rescue Unit and OPP Emergency Response Team arrested Shane Sabourin, 30, inside 28 Bell Street in Carleton Place. Soon after, he Shane Sabourin of Carleton Place was arrested inside a home on Bell Street just before 1 p.m. on July 15. He is facing a first-degree murder charge in the fatal assault of Mississippi Mills' Patrick Robert Lynch the same day. Above, Sabourin is taken away by members of the OPP Tactics and Rescue Unit and OPP Emergency Response Team, before being transported to hospital for medical attention.
