

Ayr is Rogers Hometown Hockey's first stop in 2021

Members of the Ayr Rockets FUNDamentals Hockey Team face off at the Desjardins three-on-three ball hockey rink with Rogers Hometown Hank officiating. Left side, front to back: Penelope Schaefer, Tessa Bellamy, Betsy Kelly. Right side, front front to back: Abigail Read, Grace Larmour, Audrey Markus, Elsie Proceviat.

Oscar Kelly of Ayr is greeted by Rogers Hometown Hank on Sunday afternoon.

Ayr Centennials Owen Ireton (left) and Jacob Steinman (right) autograph a Cens cheer towel for Gavin Kuhn of Ayr. The Cens are wearing new third jerseys that will be introduced this year.

Thomas Grubb of Ayr gets an autograph from Shayne Corson at the Hometown Hockey event on Saturday morning. Corson played in the NHL from 1985 until 2004 with the Toronto Maple Leafs, Montreal Canadiens, Edmonton Oilers, St. Louis Blues, and Dallas Stars.

From left, Sydney and Ryann Hodgson met Hometown Hockey hosts Tara Slone and Ron MacLean during a meet and greet at the North Dumfries Community Complex on Sunday evening.

Photos by Irene Schmidt-Adeney,
Jimmy Balkwill and Bob Howes

Ayr is Rogers Hometown Hockey's first stop in 2021

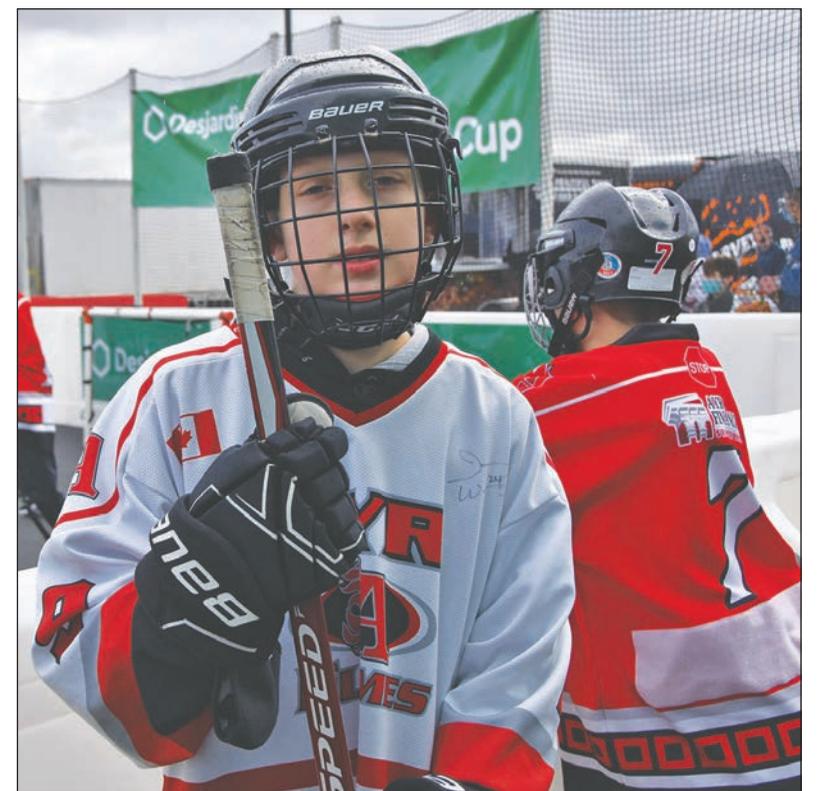

The Rogers Hometown Hockey fun was not just at the North Dumfries Community Complex, but spread throughout the village last week. Above, primary students at Cedar Creek Public School wore hockey jerseys on Friday.

Mark and Becky Zulkosky were volunteers with Ayr Minor Hockey at Rogers Hometown Hockey this weekend.

Junior students at Cedar Creek show their hockey jerseys during the school's jersey day.

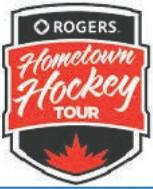

Ryan Wehrli of Ayr waits to play at the Desjardins three-on-three ball hockey rink on Sunday morning at the Rogers Hometown Hockey event.

Participants in the Foodland Grocery Game on Saturday at the Rogers Hometown Hockey event.

WH'AYR IN THE WORLD ARE TARA AND RON – Tara Slone and Ron MacLean know where to find local news in Ayr and show their front page photo during a meet and greet at the Rogers Hometown Hockey Event on Sunday evening.

Ayr is Rogers Hometown Hockey's first stop in 2021

Ayr Rockets player Betsy Kelly tapes up her stick at the Rogers Hometown Hockey event on Sunday morning at the North Dumfries Community Complex.

Scott Eby (left) presented Ron MacLean (centre) with an Ayr Centennials jersey at the Rogers Hometown Hockey Event on Sunday evening. Tara Slone was presented with an Ayr Centennials jersey during a home game on Thursday, September 30.

Jennifer and Jamie Dol of Ayr were among the first arrivals at the Hometown Hockey event held from Saturday, October 16 until Monday, October 18 at the North Dumfries Community Centre.

The Ayr Rockets U11 BB team at the Rogers Hometown Hockey event on Saturday morning. Back row, from left: Katrina Radbourne, Hannah Bast, Morgan Perriman, Katie Power, Delia Buchholtz. Front row, from left: Ella Graham, Edyn Holroyd, Ryann Hodgson, Isabella Fonseca.

Ayr hockey teams combined to hold a 50-50 draw fundraiser as part of the Hometown Hockey event. From left: Angie Hack, Amy Hodgson, and Colleen Graham.

Ayr Centennials Hockey Team supporters sport the jerseys of today and yesterday. The team purchased the Kitchener Dutchmen last year to become a Jr. B. team. From left: Suzanne Kelley, Jenna Charron, and Jen Charron. Photo by Bob Howes.