

'LEAFING' THINGS BETTER

LOCAL SCHOOL CHILDREN REALLY DUG TAKING PART IN THE ANNUAL RICHMOND HILL ROTARY TREE PLANTING HELD MAY 22 AT THE OAK RIDGES CORRIDOR CONSERVATION RESERVE

Justin Greaves/Torstar

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: Marlon Roi from the Urban Forest Association demonstrates how to properly dig a hole; Bond Lake Public School student Sarah Le carries pales of mulch to cover her planted tree and ; Lathan Campbell (left) and Jeremy Zhang, Grade 5 students from Bond Lake Public School, cover their planted tree with mulch, which reduces weeds and conserves moisture.
