Oakville fire crews responded to a Tuesday evening blaze in a storage barn near St. Volodymyr Cultural Centre — the sixth fire in Oakville in the past month.

With the blaze brought under control, area roads were expected to remain closed well into early Wednesday morning as the fire investigation continued.

Firefighters arrived on the scene shortly after 8 p.m. to find the barn fully engulfed in flames and heavy smoke in the area from the blaze, which ravaged a large barn apparently used as a storage facility near the local cultural centre, on Dundas Street near

Development eyed at Glen Abbey Golf Club: mayor

by David Lea
Oakville Beaver Staff

The owner of Glen Abbey Golf Club wants to develop the world-famous golf course into a housing subdivision.

Oakville Mayor Rob broke the news during his annual Town status report at Monday night's council meeting.

Burton mentioned the potential development as one of a number of big questions that will be facing Oakville in the near future.

“What will be the future of the world famous Glen Abbey Golf Course?” he asked of the golf course designed by Jack Nicklaus.

Ward 4 Town and Regional Councillor Allan Elgar noted on Oct. 23, the Town's Planning Services Department

see Glen Abbey on p.5

“ It is Oakville. That is how everyone knows Oakville, the Canadian Open in Oakville... I think this will galvanize all the residents... and so it should. ”
